

Joshua Hui, MD, MSCR, FACEP
Assistant Clinical Professor

Title
Director of Simulation

E-mail
joshhui@gmail.com

Professional Education

Residency
LAC+USC Medical Center, 2009
Specialty: Emergency Medicine

Internship
UCLA Medical Center, 2006
Specialty: Internal Medicine

Medical
University of California, Los Angeles David Geffen School of Medicine, 2005
Doctor of Medicine

Graduate
NIH/UCLA K30 Program, 2013
Master of Science in Clinical Research

Undergraduate
University of California, Los Angeles, 2000
Bachelor of Sciences in Neuroscience and Psychobiology

Profile

As Director of Simulation of UCLA-Olive View Emergency Medicine Residency, Dr. Hui focuses on simulation education to Emergency Medicine residents by providing a formalized simulation residency curriculum, and performing simulation research in procedural competence, team training and cognitive error.

Within the Society for Simulation in Healthcare (SSH), Dr. Hui serves as Chair of its Research Committee and Scientific Contents Committee of International Meeting for Simulation in Healthcare being responsible of increasing its scientific rigors for the Society in its research-based endeavors. In addition to managing and reviewing SSH Novice Research Grant, Dr. Hui also serves as the reviewer of simulation-based research grant applications submitted to the Joint Program Committee 1 –Medical Simulation and Training Technologies under the Department of Defense. Dr. Hui has received a scroll of commendation from the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors in 2012 and the Best Implemented Patient Safety Project Award in 2011 for his simulation endeavors in Los Angeles County. Dr. Hui was selected as a top reviewer for Simulation in Healthcare in 2013. He speaks on simulation-based research methodology and statistical topics at national and international meetings.

Dr. Hui also serves as Chair of Annual Assembly of the American College of Emergency Medicine California Chapter (2013-2015)

